Eisenhower Stricken With Cold

By JOHN BARBOUR

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower — stricken suddenly with a painful cough and raw throat — is in Walter Reed Army Medical Center to guard against complications.

His condition was described as satisfactory, save for the moderately severe inflammation of his windpipe and bronchial tubes.

His doctors — prescribing antibiotics — expect improvement today or Saturday.

The quick entry into the hospital Thursday afternoon for an estimated seven to 10 day stay presumably takes the 74-year-old Republican out of the next stage of the election campaign.

So fast was the onset of the illness that an aide noticed only a slight huskiness in Eisenhower's voice the evening before.

But through the night it became worse. By Thursday morning the former president was so ill he had to drop plans to attend the New York City funeral services for another former president, Herbert Hoover, who died Tuesday at the age of 90.

Eisenhower was driven to Walter Reed by his personal driver, an Army sergeant. On admittance to the military hospital, Eisenhower was speaking with extreme difficulty, and his croup-like cough brought up phlegm — his ailment extending beyond laryngitis.

X-rays showed no signs of pneumonia, doctors indicated, and Eisenhower's heart — hit by a severe attack in 1955 — was described as very good.

Heart Attack Proves Fatal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Otis Carter, 58, of Little Rock was found dead Thursday in his car, which was parked in a roadside park beside Maumelle Creek.

Sheriff's deputies said the body was on the passenger side of the car, with the feet in the car and the head on the ground.

They said they learned that Carter had been under a physician's care for a heart condition.

Faubus Adds New Charge to Long List

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gov. Orval E. Faubus added a new charge Thursday to his list against Winthrop Rockefeller: Cemetery wrecker.

Faubus told a statewide television audience that Rockefeller, the Republican candidate for governor, is not the "father Christmas to Arkansas that some of you have been led to believe."

Faubus continued his personal attack on Rockefeller in the 30-minute telecast, but he brought out new charges in the last 10 minutes.

The governor read a letter from E. H. Tighman of Little Rock which related to a cemetery south of Lonoke on land owned by Rockefeller's Southern Rice Farms.

The letter complained that the cemetery had been bulldozed and that tombstones had been pushed over and broken.

Faubus produced pictures which showed some broken tombstones. They also showed some posted land. Faubus said this prevented relatives of the dead from visiting or maintaining the graves.

Husbandly Remarks That Make Little Wife Wonder If It's All Worth While

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Husbandly remarks that make a wife wonder whether it's all worth while:

"Yeah, it's not bad, but I still can remember how good it tasted when my mother cooked this dish."

"Oh, hon, I forgot to tell you — my boss and his wife are coming to dinner tonight. But you don't have to bother to fix up anything special."

"I stopped off for just a couple with the boys. If I miss the 6:22 train, be sure and meet the 7:19. In any case I'll catch the 8:05 at the very latest."

"What do wives do all day anyway — just lie on the sofa and think up abuse to heap on their hard-working husbands when they get home?"

"We got a new girl in the stenographic pool at the office. And boy, is she a bucker! But what I like about her is that she's smart. When I give her a letter, she seems to know what I want to say even before I say it."

"Is this a home — or a tent full of Indians? Tell those kids to be quiet."

"What in heaven's name do you need a cleaning woman for. Don't you own a mop?"

"I don't know what happens to all the money I give you. You

Diphtheria Hits Lake Village

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Health Department urged Lake Village residents Thursday to immunize themselves against diphtheria after three cases were found in a one-block area at Lake Village.

The patients were a woman in her 60s and an eight-year-old girl. A 47-year-old woman died of the disease.

Source of the disease has not been determined, the department said.

Lewisville Firm Seeks a Loan

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Walnut Hill Telephone Co. of Lewisville asked state Public Service Commission authority Thursday to borrow money to develop new exchanges at two towns.

It would develop exchanges at Saratoga and Winthrop and would make general systemwide improvements.

It asked permission to borrow up to $534,800 from General Dynamics Corp. or borrow up to $300,000 from Bankers National Life Insurance Co.

must put a match to it."

"You go to the door, honey, I'm tired."

"If you think I'm going to take you out anywhere tonight, honey, you've got another think coming."

"Tell your mother to come and stay as long as she wants to — as long as she brings along enough to pay part of the rent and her share of the board."

"I like you in that new dress. What do you mean, you've had it for five years? I never noticed it before."

"For pete's sake, what do we need with all that junk? We're just going on a vacation trip — not settling the Far West."

"What do you mean, do I love you? What do you think I married you for?"

"Now, let's get one thing clear, once and for all. Who do you think rules this roost?"

"What do you want for Christmas — a new ironing board or a new lawnmower?"

"Why does it take you so long to get ready? We've been married 21 years — and never yet got anywhere on time."

"Of course I wouldn't want to marry anyone else if anything ever happened to you. Not unless she had real money, anyway."

"You carry out the garbage, honey. I'm tired."

Lax Security Charged by Goldwater

By WALTER R. MEARS

FULLERTON, Calif. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater today said the Walter W. Jenkins affair showed there was "lax security" in the White House.

He coupled that with a charge that the State Department has cleared 150 people to handle U.S. secrets without full security investigations.

"The issue of national security and national integrity now has become firmly embedded in this election campaign," the Republican presidential nominee declared as — for the first time — he used the Jenkins case in a campaign speech.

For the moment, the Goldwater camp had no comment on the newly released FBI report, issued on Johnson's orders, which said investigators found no information to indicate the former presidential aide compromised U.S. security.

Jenkins, arrested twice on morals charges, resigned at Johnson's request eight days ago after his record was revealed.

Goldwater talked about the Jenkins matter in a speech on a whistle-stop campaign tour this morning from Los Angeles to San Diego.

The text, demanding that the Jenkins report be issued before the election, was handed to newsmen before the FBI report was released. But Paul F. Wagner, Goldwater's press secretary, said the Arizona senator stood by it, even though "we have not seen the (FBI) report."

Goldwater said Republicans did not create the issue of security and integrity.

"The man who now occupies the White House raised this issue all by himself — by lowering the standards of the highest office of this land," Goldwater said.

In the speech, he demanded creation of a bipartisan watchdog panel to oversee release of FBI reports on the Jenkins case and on a contract kickback charge involving former Senate Democratic secretary Bobby Baker.

"The case of Walter Jenkins is not the only one of its kind," Goldwater said. "One hundred and fifty persons in the State Department alone have been given emergency clearance to deal with security matters without waiting for a full field investigation."

Goldwater said he wanted the commission to handle both FBI accounts and "make them public within the bounds of national interest and within the time limit of this national election."

Funeral services were held Friday morning at Shreveport.

Mrs. Campbell Announces Candidacy

The Star has been authorized to announce the candidacy of Mrs. Bobby Campbell for State Representative.

Mrs. Campbell issued the following statement:

"I have lived in Hope for the past five years. In 1962-63 served as Arkansas' Chicken Queen, and was secretary to Freddie Greenan, Corn Belt Hatcheries, for four and one-half years. I am presently employed as a private secretary in Texarkana."

"I became interested in the Republican Party about one year ago, realizing the extreme need in our state and county for a strong two-party system. I started attending meetings and was elected to the office of secretary. It was and is my opinion that through competition we are more assured of receiving the best — whether it be in sports, business, or politics. Like a lot of other people, I had decided there wasn't much point in going to the polls since everything was already cut and dried."

"The majority of the people in this county are capable of thinking for themselves and this year, for once, they do have a choice, when they go to the polls. My sincere hope is that each of you will exercise this privilege by going to the polls and voting for the persons of your choice."

"It would be an honor and a privilege to be able to say hello to each of you prior to the election. Since this is impossible, I take this method of conveying my thoughts to you. If I have a platform, it's simply this: Government for the people, by the people. In its broadest sense, it covers everything each conscientious citizen wants. My promise: If elected — not to affect miracles — but to represent the citizens of Hempstead County at all times in all legislative matters to their best interest, and to the very best of my ability."

"If I merit your confidence, then vote for me November 3."

J. O. Merchant, 68, of McCaskill, Dies

Jess O. Merchant, 68, formerly of McCaskill, died Thursday in a Little Rock Veterans Hospital.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Olive Merchant, three sons, Billy W. of Benton, Herman G. of Ft. Meade, Md., William G. of Ft. Meade, Md., and two daughters, Mrs. Irene Moore of Ft. Bragg, N.C., and Mrs. Irene McDonald of Benton.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Chapel. Burial will be in Macedonia Cemetery, near McCaskill.

Hungarians Deflect to America

By ROBERT LIU

TOKYO (AP) — Three Hungarians — one a member of his nation's Olympic team — deflected today and flew to the United States to ask for asylum.

Japanese police reported. The two other Hungarians were tourists here for the Olympic Games.

The Olympic, Andras Toro, 24, a good-looking youth who finished fourth in the Canadian canoe singles, was the first Iron Curtain sportsman to defect during the Tokyo Olympic Games which wind up Saturday.

The other two men, Denes Kovacs, 42, and Karoly Molnar, about 38, were reported to have decided the Olympics presented a good opportunity to go to the United States where they have relatives.

The three were said to have picked up visas for their Hungarian passports at the U.S. Embassy.

Japanese police, who escorted the three to the airport and kept them away from newsmen. (Continued on Page Three)

Johnson Aide Not a Security Risk, FBI Says

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI says it has conducted an extensive investigation of Walter W. Jenkins and found no evidence that President Johnson's top aide for 25 years compromised the security or interests of the United States in any manner.

Jenkins resigned at Johnson's request on Oct. 14 after it became public knowledge that the special presidential assistant had been arrested at the YMCA here on morals charges in 1959 and again last Oct. 7.

In reporting to Johnson Thursday night on the investigation he had ordered, the FBI said:

"It found that Jenkins 'had limited association with some individuals who are alleged to be, or who admittedly are, sex deviates' but there is no information reported to indicate he 'ever had improper acts with them.'"

Jenkins "admitted having engaged in the indecent acts for which he was arrested in 1959 and 1964." He said that he had not known Andy Choka, with whom he was arrested on Oct. 7.

He told the FBI no attempt had ever been made to compromise or blackmail him.

Jenkins said he was "enticed" by the arresting officer in 1959 and "his mind was befuddled by fatigue, alcohol, physical illness and lack of food" at the time of the Oct. 7 arrest.

The President has said that until the day he asked Jenkins to resign he had no information that would have led him to question the personal conduct of his aide.

Hoover died in New York Tuesday at the age of 90. Thousands filed past his casket there in the great Episcopal Church of St. Bartholomew's on Park Avenue.

And Thursday the tumult of presidential politics was stilled for the moment as all four contenders for highest national posts attended simple, impressive services in the church.

The candidates — President Johnson, Sen. Barry Goldwater, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey and Rep. William E. Miller — sat fairly close together but except for a nod passing between Goldwater and Humphrey, they did not seem to notice each other.

Case Involves Jailing of Gene Wirges

By JOHN R. STARR

Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An attorney for Gene Wirges told the Arkansas Supreme Court today that Wirges did not invoke the Fifth Amendment before Circuit Judge Wiley Bean jailed him Thursday but that he would have if Bean had given him an opportunity.

The court liberated the case today while Wirges waited in the courtroom.

Wirges was jailed for refusing to testify before the Conway County Grand Jury which is investigating the possibility of a conspiracy against Sheriff Marlin Hawkins.

His attorney, Thorp Thomas of Little Rock, obtained a writ of habeas corpus from the Supreme Court Thursday. The writ was designed to get Wirges before the Supreme Court for a hearing on whether he was being legally held in jail.

The hearing this morning lasted 30 minutes. Thomas told the court that Bean sent Wirges to jail even though Wirges contended he had a right to refuse to testify and had said that he had more grounds for his refusal.

Prosecutor Jeff Mobley of Russellville represented Bean. He told the court that it was the state's position that Wirges never invoked the Fifth Amendment even though he had ample opportunity to do so. The Fifth Amendment guarantees an individual against giving testi-

Amendment 51 Abolishes Land Agency

(Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of eight articles on proposed constitutional amendments which will be on the Nov. 3 ballot.)

By JOHN R. STARR
 Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sam Jones, the unopposed Democratic candidate for a fifth term as land commissioner, will be without a job if proposed Amendment 51 is adopted Nov. 3.

But most of the other state constitutional officers — all except governor and lieutenant governor — will have their maximum salary doubled. The governor would be raised from $10,000 to $18,000 a year and the lieutenant governor from $2,500 to $3,600 for a job which requires his presence in Little Rock infrequently when the legislature is not in session. The amendment is permissive — the legislature would have to grant the pay raises — but there is little doubt that all salaries will be pegged at the new limit in 1965.

The new limit for the secretary of state, treasurer and auditor will be $10,000 a year, compared to $5,000 now. The attorney general's pay will be increased from $6,000 to $12,000.

In each of the last two elections, voters have soundly defeated similar proposed amendments. Some of the salary figures were different, but the principle was the same. And the voters said, in effect: "We think these elected officials are making enough."

Now the same amendment — with the salary scales for governor and lieutenant governor slightly lowered and the provision abolishing the Land Department as a constitutional office added — is back on the ballot.

Supporters of the amendment argue that common laborers now make more than $5,000 a year on many jobs. And only one other state pays its governor as little as $10,000 a year. Most gubernatorial salaries range from $20,000 upward.

Apparently the amendment, like its predecessors, will simply sit on the ballot with no actual campaign waged for or against it. County officials campaigned for one of the previous proposals, which also included raises for them, but their raises are in another amendment this year.

The elected officials appear reluctant to ask for a raise in a job they sought aggressively, knowing what the salary was. But all of them feel they are worth the new maximum. The voters last granted pay

People in the News

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge, former U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam, has received the Thomas A. Dooley Foundation's first "Splendid American" award. In accepting the honor Wednesday night, Lodge said that because of South Viet Nam's geographical position, large areas of Asia "can be influenced and undetermined" from the country.

The award was named after the late Dr. Thomas A. Dooley of St. Louis, Mo., who introduced modern medicine and built a 25-bed hospital in Laos.

LONDON (AP) — Christine Keeler, the 22-year-old call girl who was a central figure in last year's profumo scandal, had a point in objecting to publication of her telephone number, says the British Press Council.

ment on the report of the FBI investigation from the White House or from Republicans. The Jenkins arrests have become an issue in the presidential election campaign, and Dean Burch, Republican national chairman, has charged the President with covering up the first arrest.

The report which FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover sent to Johnson and acting Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach said Jenkins had been cleared on security checks in 1956, 1957 and 1958.

Hoover said Jenkins told the FBI "he would lay down his life before he would disclose any information that would damage the best interests of the United States."

Jenkins, 46, and the father of six, was placed in George Washington University Hospital by Dr. Charles Thompson the day the arrests became public knowledge. He remains hospitalized.

The FBI said its investigation covered "the full scope of Mr. Jenkins' life, from his early years in Texas to the present time," and that more than 500 persons, including current and former neighbors, business associates, social acquaintances and school classmates were interviewed.

And this "extensive investigation," the FBI said, "disclosed no information that Mr. Jenkins has compromised the security or interests of the United States in any manner."

The report said that the fingerprint card it received from Washington police after Jenkins' arrest in 1959, made "no mention of a sex or morals offense... nor did it show any indication of government employment."

And, the FBI continued: "Because the police record routinely transmitted to the FBI did not refer to the arrest in terms other than investigation suspicious person and because the Secret Service did not notify the White House or the vice president of the arrest, neither President Kennedy, the White House staff nor Mr. Johnson had any knowledge of the 1959 incident nor any reason to suspect its existence."

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wright of Ft. Smith announce the arrival of their first child on Friday, October 16. It was a 7 lb., 9 oz. son who has been named Damon Lee. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wright, Rte. 3, Hope, and Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Nolan, Blevins.

Coming and Going

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Munn, Midland, Texas, were recent overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Munn and also visited other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Huckabee and Mrs. Hazel Bright left Thursday for Houston to be with Mrs. Foster Clifton of Texarkana, who has open-heart surgery scheduled for Friday at St. Luke's Hospital.

Mrs. Bert Campbell, Santa Paula, Calif., is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. N. Belew, and Mr. Belew.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shiver, Mrs. E. P. O'Neal, and Mrs. Glenie Porter returned home Wednesday from Tennessee. While the Shivers visited the Ronnie Nations family in Kingsport, Mrs. O'Neal and Mrs. Porter went to Asheville, N.C. and then all enjoyed a Crafts Fair in Gatlinburg, Tenn., before coming home.

Mrs. James T. Greene and Miss Lillie Allen, both of Greenville, S. C., are visiting Mrs. B. C. Hyatt.

After taking a tour, "Flamingo Fall Revue," a potential scenic professional guided tour of the Ozarks, and later a guest of the Roy Prathers in Little Rock, and attending the play, "Luther," Mrs. Steve Carrigan, Jr. has returned to her home in Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Rogers of St. Louis and the S. D. McCoy family were the dinner guests of the Chester May's of Hope.

"DEAR ABBY"

DON'T CENSOR HER, YET!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: How do you feel about a woman who is married and a mother returning to high school to complete her education? I understand in some states it is allowed if she is under 18. A 16-year-old mother, (shotgunned) wants to return. The other girls will undoubtedly accept her and make a fuss over her and, by so doing, will appear to approve of her past behavior. She, in turn, can instruct them well in married life. I feel for the girl, but I also feel for the good girls who have been raised with high moral standards. I think if such a girl wants to complete her education she should go to a school outside her district. What do you think?

UPSET IN PENNA.
Dear Abby: If the girl is legally entitled to return to school in the district of her residence, that's that. As for the commotion she might cause, that would depend on her behavior and that of the other girls. The school authorities are capable of judging fairly. Give the girl a chance.

Dear Abby: Is it okay to go out with a married man if you keep your distance?

TEMPTED
Dear Abby: Why don't you ask his wife (and "keep your distance" when you do)?

Dear Abby: I am an 11-year-old girl and I love to draw. Especially horses. My piano teacher is a very good artist and that is what I want to be. If I have a good piano lesson my teacher teaches me how to draw horses and I like that a lot better than playing the piano. I asked my father if I could quit piano and take drawing lessons instead, and he looked at me like I was crazy or something. I can spend hours drawing, and never get tired, but when I practice the piano for half an hour I am worn out. How can I get my father to let me quit piano and take drawing?

LOVES TO DRAW
Dear Loves to Draw: Stick with your piano lessons and draw on the side. If you have a real talent for art, perhaps your piano teacher will speak to your father in your behalf. But first talk it over with your teacher. HE managed to become a pretty good musician and draw for fun, didn't he?

Dear Abby: We are at the end of our rope, so please print this and do a lot of people a big favor. We have a neighbor who lives alone except for her two dogs and we don't know how many cats. Her house stinks, her furniture is filthy, and there is cat hair all over the place. She complains that her friends don't want to visit her any more. She has always been a very nice person, and we don't want to hurt her, but we just can't go into that house, Abby. The odor is unbelievable. Even her relatives don't visit her any more. If you print this, she might see it and take the hint.

Friends But Not Visitors
Dear Friends: The poor soul needs more than a "hint," she needs professional help. Call one of her relatives and ask them to look in on her. If this doesn't bring results, your county Board of Health should be notified.

Painting Sold for $117,500

NEW YORK (AP) — Sixty modern paintings and sculptures from the collection of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ross sold for $117,500 in an auction at the Parke-Bernet Galleries Wednesday night. The top figure was $117,500 for a Picasso.

It was from his cubist period, titled "Verre, Bouquet, Guitare, Bouteille," and went to Robert Elkon's New York Gallery.

this month. Bean called both juries.

The first call came after an Oct. 1 news conference at which Wirges charged that there had been irregularities in the conduct of the sheriff's office.

Bean called the jury at Hawkins' request. The judge instructed the jury to indict either Hawkins or Wirges. Hawkins was cleared. Wirges was indicted on slander charges.

The second investigation began after two justices of the peace issued warrants against Hawkins. Bean threw out both warrants and told the jury to investigate whether there was any collusion in the issuing of the warrants.

Everett A. Ham Jr., a top aide to gubernatorial candidate Winthrop Rockefeller, was called to testify in the second investigation.

Attorneys for Ham asked Bean to (1) disqualify himself and (2) let an exchange judge call a new grand jury.

Thursday, Bean rejected the motion that he disqualify himself. Wirges' lawyer headed for the Supreme Court and secured a writ of habeas corpus from the five judges present.

Wirges contended that the grand jury which indicted him for slander was prejudiced. His attorneys attempted to have the indictment quashed. Wirges also contended that the jury which returned the indictment would be prejudiced against him in this case, so a new jury should be called.

The jury recessed until Monday morning without handing in a report on its conspiracy investigation.

Two men from the State Police Criminal Investigation Division (plainclothesmen) went to Morrilton and spent the night in the county jail near Wirges.

Wirges and Hawkins have been foes for years. Wirges edited the Morrilton Democrat until last year when creditors took over the paper after libel judgments totaling $275,000 were returned against him.

In another chapter in the battle, Chancellor Lawrence E. Dawson of Pine Bluff urged that Bean step aside in this case.

The constant turmoil in the county and the fact that "according to news media Judge Bean has become involved... to such an extent that... he cannot possibly sit in these matters... with a fair and impartial eye."

The statement was sent to Bean and to Circuit Judge Lyle Brown of Hope, president of the Arkansas Judicial Council.

Dawson's statement said the case had a tendency to discredit the entire judiciary in the state.

ing the cemetery.

G.W. Adkisson, general manager of Winrock Farms, said the cemetery apparently was abandoned when the land was purchased. He said he had no knowledge of the cemetery being the site of work with bulldozers or any other machinery.

Adkisson said the cemetery was fenced to keep cattle out. He said the gate was not locked and the public was free to come and go. He said there had never been a request to maintain the cemetery.

"If he (Rockefeller) is so kindhearted, why did he level this cemetery without regard for the feelings of the relatives or respect for the dead?" Faubus asked.

Faubus also said Rockefeller has said progress under the Faubus administration has been illusory.

He challenged Rockefeller to "feel the brick and mortar" of new buildings at the State Hospital, Children's Colony, 38 new National Guard armories and see "if they are illusions, imaginary mirages or if they're real and genuine."

The governor also said teachers and welfare clients are receiving more money in their checks than they did 10 years ago.

"Go out to the crossroads hamlets and talk with these old people, many of whom are broken in body from working to build this state before you ever heard here, before you ever heard of it," Faubus said in challenging Rockefeller.

"Have you broken down and been sampling too much of the 'ancient spirits' that you have been collecting to see this progress?" Faubus asked.

Vote Requirement, 6 Months Residency

LITTLE ROCK (AP)-The attorney general's office ruled today that a person must live in a county at least six months to be eligible to vote for county and municipal offices in the county. If he has not, the ruling said, he may vote only for federal and state offices.

Pulaski County Clerk R. S. Peters asked for the ruling. He said he had an unusual number of applications from voters who said they recently have moved to the county.

They said they have their 1964 poll tax receipts from other counties in the state.

The ruling said a person who has paid the poll tax must live in his new precinct 30 days to be eligible to vote for municipal officials.

Man Succumbs at Deer Hunting Camp

HARRISON, Ark. (AP)-William Albert West of Harrison, manager of Arkansas Power & Light Company's Ozark Division, died Tuesday of a heart attack near Steamboat Springs, Colo. He was 62.

West was with a group of friends from Harrison at a deer hunting camp.

"Nobody else is capable of filling Hugo's shoes or even wants to try."

"You're trying right now."

"No. All of us together. Four of us-if you can include Bud-trying to function in the place of one missing man."

"That may be something to watch out for. But there's still another thought. The thief could just let Sandor Productions stagger along and save his own skin by going into partnership with a competitor-say Bagley."

Gail's lips broke apart; she was startled and hurt. Craig had been waiting for Lew to hammer around to that. He groaned, sickened and angered by the man's unyielding bias. "Lew get yourself off my back."

"I don't think you realize what you're asking us all to believe. You say the money was stolen while you were taking a nap."

Bobcats Have to Win to Stay at Top of Loop

The Hope Bobcats journey to Magnolia tonight for a very important District 4-AA contest and the local lads figure this will be one of their toughest contests.

The hot and cold Panthers rise up occasionally and could do so against Hope. They have lost to Malvern 20-7 and Crossett 7-0. They have a very balanced attack and an experienced defense.

While the Bobcats have a very good ground game the air attack has proved vital in several games. Hope is not in the best of shape but all the boys should see action, depending largely on how the game goes.

It is rated one of the best AA games of the weekend and very likely will prove so with Magnolia having everything to gain and Hope everything to lose.

Hope has to win to keep on top of the District with Warren necks. A slip Friday night could easily throw the district into a tie.

Game time is 7:30 and many local fans as well as the band will accompany the team to Magnolia.

Colts, Lions to Battle It Out Sunday

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

More than 50,000 fans will pack Detroit's Tiger Stadium Sunday to discover what happens when an irresistible force — the Baltimore Colts — meets an immovable object — the Detroit Lions.

The game is for first place in the National Football League's Western Conference and highlights a full seven-game schedule.

The Colts have won five straight since an opening game defeat and are the only team in the league with more than 200 points — 203, to be exact. The high-powered offense is keyed to quarterback Johnny Unitas, the NFL's top passer, and halfback Lenny Moore, the scoring leader with 60 points.

The Tiger's, on the other hand, are only 10th in scoring but their staunch defense has yielded only 71 points, by far the best mark in the circuit. Detroit has a 4-1-1 record so the winner will be all alone atop the West.

Milt Plum will have to go the route at quarterback for the Lions. Earl Morrill, who had just about won the No. 1 job, broke his collarbone last week. If anything happens to Plum, flanker back Terry Barr has been prepped to take over. Colt fullback Jerry Hill, who sat out last week's victory over Green Bay, is still doubtful with a knee injury.

Other games find Dallas (1-4-1) at St. Louis (4-1-1), New York (1-4-1) at Cleveland (4-1-1), Philadelphia (3-3) at Pittsburgh (3-3), Minnesota (3-3) at San Francisco (2-4), Chicago (2-4) at Washington (1-5) and Los Angeles (3-2-1) vs. Green Bay (3-3) at Milwaukee.

The American Football League has all eight teams in action over the weekend. Kansas City (2-3) is at Boston (4-1-1) tonight while New York (3-1-1) plays at Buffalo (6-0) Saturday night. The Bills are the only unbeaten team in pro football.

Sunday, San Diego (3-2-1) is at Houston (2-4) at Denver (1-5) is at Oakland (0-5-1).

The NFL's Eastern co-leaders, Cleveland and St. Louis, have home games against also-rans who could bust loose on any given Sunday.

The Browns face their arch-rivals, the New York Giants, and the defending Eastern champs would like nothing better than to deal the Clevelanders a setback. As he has been every week, Y. A. Little is about

U.S. Cage Team Smashes Russia for Gold Medal

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

TOKYO (AP) — A silky-smooth, inspired United States basketball team, stung by widespread speculation that their Olympic dominance was at an end, crushed Russia 73-59 today and won the gold medal for the sixth straight time while Joe Frazier of Philadelphia won the heavyweight boxing title.

The Soviets, however, grabbed off boxing and gymnastic medals at a pell-mell rate and overtook the United States in the total medals' tabulation on the last full day of competition in the 8th modern Olympics.

The Russian gymnasts collected seven medals, including two gold, and the boxers added seven more, three of them gold. In all, the Russians added 19 pieces of Olympic hardware to their collection for a total of 96.

The United States, meanwhile, got only two—the golds by the basketball team and Frazier—for a total of 90.

The only event on the final day of the Games, Saturday, is equestrian grand prix jumping. Neither the United States nor Russia is expected to score heavily, and the present medal totals are likely to stand.

They show Russia with thirty gold, 31 silver and 35 bronze. The United States has 36 gold, 26 silver and 28 bronze.

Frazier's narrow victory was the only one by an American boxer, in contrast to the three championships won in 1960, including one by current world heavyweight champion Cassius Clay.

The 195-pound Philadelphia slaughterhouse skinner went the full three rounds and took the title on a 3-2 decision by the five judges over Germany's Hans Huber.

Leading the basketball team in its surprisingly easy conquest of the Russians were Lucious Jackson of Pan American College with 17 points and Joe Caldwell of Arizona State with 14.

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

TOKYO (AP) — Russia's graceful, talented women's gymnasts scooped up four medals, including one gold, in the first two of five events on this final day of competition in the Olympic Games and all but assured the Soviets of beating the United States in the total medal count.

The four medals, including a gold by Larisa Latynina in individual floor exercise, gave the Russians seven for the day and pushed their total to 84 compared with 88 for the United States.

Russia, however, is assured of seven more medals in boxing, also on the final program, and the United States is assured of one, either a silver or gold by heavyweight Joe Frazier of Philadelphia.

The difference is six, which would put the Russians two ahead of the United States' total.

With the evening schedule just getting underway, Russia had 26 gold medals, 23 silver and 35 bronze. The United States had 34 gold, 26 silver and 28 bronze.

The Russians, moreover, are all but certain of surpassing the U.S. medal total since they have strong entrants in the other four gymnastic events scheduled tonight. The United States is not expected to score.

The key medals for the Soviets were picked up by Tamara Manina and Larisa Latynina, who finished second and third behind Czechoslovakia's Vera Caslavskaja in the women's balance beam exercise.

Earlier, Russia had taken the gold medal in sabre team fencing and in men's volleyball, routing Brazil 3-0 in the final volleyball game. Defending champion Sergey Pilatov rode absent to a third-place finish in individual dressage in the equestrian competition.

The Russians, who trailed all the way in the medal count in these Games, have dominated due for a big game. And for the first time in years, Jimmy Brown can face the Giants without having to worry about his old nemesis, Sam Huff.

Dallas takes its super-charged offense to St. Louis. Halfback Don Perkins is one of the league's best while quarterback Don Meredith has a wealth of gifted receivers. That should make it an interesting afternoon for the Cards' pass defense, headed by Pat Fischer, who is tied for the individual interception lead with five, including two touchdowns.

Los Angeles and Green Bay will be trying to stave virtual elimination from the Western race. The loser will be hard-pressed to make up ground on the leaders with half the season over.

Only the first time the Russians took part in the Olympics in Helsinki in 1952, were they beaten, 76-69 by the United States.

The United States has led these Games almost from the start and had an edge of 88-77 going into this last full day of competition. From the start, however, it was known that the Americans would have to build a huge lead to offset the expected fast finish of the Russian team.

In the last two Olympics, beating the United States in total medals 98-74 in the 1956 Games in Melbourne and 103-71 in the 1960 Games in Rome.

Another reason the league delayed its vote which had every aspect of being in favor of the move, was the threat made by Eugene Grobshmidt, chairman of the Braves' board of directors, acknowledged the legal maneuver was a temporary setback but expressed confidence the club will be able to show cause before Circuit Court Judge Ronald Drescher next Tuesday why it should be permitted to leave Milwaukee.

"We feel confident we will be able to present a list of determining factors which make it imperative for us to move the club," he said.

"It is our firm belief that we have exhausted every possible means to keep the franchise in Milwaukee."

Texas Starts Drive for a Comeback

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas starts a comeback drive Saturday night against an old foe worthy of its steel as the angry Longhorns clash with Rice at Houston.

It's a strange situation—the national champions of 1963 having to fight for their lives at the midway point of the Southwest Conference race.

But that's the way it is. When Texas lost to Arkansas last week it put the Longhorns behind the eight-ball. One more conference loss and Texas can start thinking about basketball.

The comeback is against a team that has given it the most trouble of all. Texas hasn't been able to win a game in Houston since 1952.

Rice has a poor season record but still is strongly in the conference race. The Owls won their first conference test last week when they beat Southern Methodist 7-6.

Arkansas, leading the conference race with an unbeaten, untied record, takes more or less of a rest this week—the Razorbacks play Wichita in an intersectional game.

The Texas-Rice melee heads a schedule of three conference games and two intersectional clashes.

Baylor and Southern Methodist will be fighting to remain in the race as they meet Texas A&M and Texas Tech respectively.

Baylor, with a 1-1 conference record, takes on the winless Aggies at Waco. Southern Methodist, which lost its only conference game played to date, meets Texas Tech at Lubbock.

Texas Christian hosts Clemson of the Atlantic Coast Conference in the other intersectional game on the schedule.

Texas, Baylor, Texas Tech and Arkansas are favored to win their games. Texas Christian is a mild underdog to Clemson.

One out of four last week made the average look like a pitcher's batting prowess. Here's an effort to recover:

Texas-Rice at Houston (night) — Texas returns to the winner's circle with a smashing triumph.

Clemson-Texas Christian at Fort Worth (day) — The Frogs were late doing it but they finally have hit their stride and it's Texas Christian by a touchdown.

Arkansas-Wichita at Little Rock (night) — An easy one for the Razorbacks although they won't be very high after that great effort against Texas.

Texas A&M-Baylor at Waco (day) — Baylor's aerial attack the last two Olympics, beating the United States in total medals 98-74 in the 1956 Games in Melbourne and 103-71 in the 1960 Games in Rome.

Only the first time the Russians took part in the Olympics in Helsinki in 1952, were they beaten, 76-69 by the United States.

TD Pays Again for Yonkers Man

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — Ernest Dahlman Jr., the 21-year-old delicatessen clerk of Patchogue, N.Y. who hit a $171,084.60 Twin Double at Yonkers Raceway Wednesday night in partnership with his father, hit the TD again Thursday.

This time the payoff was a measly, in comparison, $899.60. Dahlman was reported to have had six winning tickets on the 3-6-2-3 combination.

Braves Seek to Set Aside Court Order

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves, determined to move their franchise, will seek to set aside a court order that blocked their initial efforts to play in Atlanta next year.

The Braves' Board of Directors was all set to ask for National League approval Thursday but was unable to do so because of the temporary restraining order awarded to the Milwaukee County Commission by a Wisconsin Circuit Court.

As a consequence, the league decided at a special meeting to delay any vote of approval until the club is free legally to leave Wisconsin.

The county bases its case on a breach of contract since the Braves' pact provides that the club perform at County Stadium in Milwaukee in 1965.

William Bartholomay, chairman of the Braves' board of directors, acknowledged the legal maneuver was a temporary setback but expressed confidence the club will be able to show cause before Circuit Court Judge Ronald Drescher next Tuesday why it should be permitted to leave Milwaukee.

"We feel confident we will be able to present a list of determining factors which make it imperative for us to move the club," he said.

"It is our firm belief that we have exhausted every possible means to keep the franchise in Milwaukee."

At Tuesday's hearing in Milwaukee, it will be decided whether an injunction shall be granted against the proposed move.

Should an injunction be granted, it would be a severe blow to Atlanta's hopes of having a major league club in 1965. A $2,000-seat stadium, costing $18 million, is halfway completed and was expected to be ready for the Braves next April.

This possibility did not appear to weigh heavily either on the Braves or National League President Warren Giles, who said the league had empowered him to call another special meeting as soon as the Braves were free to move.

"I anticipate another league meeting as soon as the restraining order is lifted — which should be soon," he said.

Another reason the league delayed its vote which had every aspect of being in favor of the move, was the threat made by Eugene Grobshmidt, chairman of the Braves' board of directors, acknowledged the legal maneuver was a temporary setback but expressed confidence the club will be able to show cause before Circuit Court Judge Ronald Drescher next Tuesday why it should be permitted to leave Milwaukee.

Skills of Top Teams Get Test This Saturday

By BOB HOOBING
Associated Press Sports Writer

Platoon-wise teams — headed by Ohio State, Notre Dame, and Alabama — will try to prove gain Saturday there is no substitute for mastery of the new substitution rule.

For some of the most skilled in specialization, bowl bait already is being dangled and scouts from post-season football festivals have a busy weekend scheduled.

Sure, it takes talent to keep winning. Nobody argues the point. But there is no mere coincidence in the fact nine of the top 10 teams have gone all the way to platoons and the other — Louisiana State — employs the three unit system.

"We wouldn't be half so under the old rule," frankly admits Ara Parseghian, coach of second-ranked Notre Dame, which plays host to Stanford.

The rule in question permits free substitution when the clock is stopped and two players per team when it is running.

One unnamed member of the Sugar Bowl selection committee says he's willing to gamble on inviting Notre Dame and LSU right now. Both clubs are prominent on the Orange Bowl list, too.

Moose Krause, Notre Dame athletic director, is busy reminding folks of the school's traditional anti-bowl policy but there is a feeling the Irish might make an exception. That they are strong enough to get bowl talk flying is a compliment to Parseghian's organization — and platoons.

How many of the athletes are the same, it's a much different Notre Dame team than the one which closed out '63 in a 14-7 losing effort against Syracuse at Yankee Stadium. The defense was sound but the attack was not consistent.

Ohio State, successor to deposed Texas in the nation's No. 1 spot, is the team considered to have the inside track for the Big Ten crown and Rose Bowl trip. The Buckeyes have been platooning for several seasons so despite some key losses Woody Hayes' boys have fit right into man of the Milwaukee County Board, to sue the league and the other nine club owners, as well, if approval was given.

"We're ready to carry this to the Supreme Court, if necessary," Rice said.

"There's only one way in which our contract with the Braves would go out the window," Grobshmidt added.

"That is if we were assured of another club coming to Milwaukee and we made an agreement with them to play in County Stadium next season."

Grobshmidt said a couple of teams were interested in moving to Milwaukee; if the Braves moved out.

"I am only free to identify one," he said. "That is Kansas City."

Tulsa visits Cincinnati with its Jerry Rhone-sparked aerial circus and the winner should go on to the Missouri Valley title.

California-Southern Cal and Oregon-Washington highlight AAWU action while Western A.C. leader Wyoming is at Arizona.

William and Mary, Southern Conference co-leader, takes on George Washington.

Other major games include UCLA at Illinois and Penn State-West Virginia plus Ivy League matches as follows: Princeton at Penn., Dartmouth at Harvard, Yale at Cornell.

the pattern neatly. While Willard Sander is one of the top rushers in the country Arnie Chonko heads all major college pass interceptions.

Ohio State has a major Big Ten date with Wisconsin while its fellow conference leader, Purdue, faces the anxious moments which go with Iowa Gary Snook's passing.

Third-ranked Alabama and Florida's No. 9 Gators meet in the battle of Tuscaloosa with the undisputed Southeastern Conference lead and unbeaten records in the balance.

Meanwhile, LSU faces Tennessee after winning its first four games for the first time since 1959. That's the last time the two met and the Vols upset the Tigers. In fact, LSU has beaten Tennessee only once in 12 meetings.

Arkansas, the fourth-ranked eleven which dethroned Texas last week, sends its platoons against nonleague rival Wichita while Texas, No. 6, has an important Southwest Conference engagement at Rice.

Fifth-ranked Nebraska heads for Colorado in Big Eight competition while Kansas is at Oklahoma State and Oklahoma is at home to Kansas state in Big Eight action. The Iowa-Missouri clash is scheduled for regional TV showing along with Minnesota-Michigan, Dartmouth-R.I. and LSU-Tennessee.

Nebraska has one offensive, one defense platoon and third and fourth units, geared to go both ways which is why Coach Bob Devaney is upset over a conference rule limiting traveling squads to 36. He wants 44.

Eighth-ranked Syracuse is at Oregon State and 10th-ranked Florida State at Virginia Tech. Syracuse's defensive unit is being strengthened by the switch of John Krok to left tackle from middleguard with Gerry Everling going the opposite route.

Although Coach Bobby Dodd still isn't fully pleased with the rule, Georgia Tech observers say one reason for Tech's unbeaten record is the substitution setup. Tech meets Tulane Saturday.

Unbeaten, once-tied Duke, a strong bowl candidate, invades Army and Navy takes on Pitt in Eastern features. Both service academies are below .500 to date because injuries have riddled their substitution setups.

In fact, Army's Paul Dietzel has announced he's had to abandon three units in favor of platoons because of six men hurt in the middle of the Cadet line. Air Force, which has taken a battering recently, bumps into Boston College, meanwhile.

Tulsa visits Cincinnati with its Jerry Rhone-sparked aerial circus and the winner should go on to the Missouri Valley title.

California-Southern Cal and Oregon-Washington highlight AAWU action while Western A.C. leader Wyoming is at Arizona.

William and Mary, Southern Conference co-leader, takes on George Washington.

Other major games include UCLA at Illinois and Penn State-West Virginia plus Ivy League matches as follows: Princeton at Penn., Dartmouth at Harvard, Yale at Cornell.

San Diego will depend on the hot passing of John Hadl who has thrown for five touchdowns in the past two Chargers' games. Houston lost to the California team 27-21 earlier in the season.

Oakland, still looking for the combination to set them flying in 1965 fashion when the team won its final eight games, return home after a three-game road swing.

American Grid League Roundup

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The race for first place in the Eastern Division of the American Football League promises to become a traffic jam during the weekend action starting tonight.

The Boston Patriots, in second place with a 4-1-1 record, rebound to face their jinx team, the Kansas City Chiefs (2-3-0) tonight at Boston. The Patriots haven't whipped the Chiefs since 1961 and must win to stay in the Eastern race. Last Friday, Boston rallied to tie the Oakland Raiders 43-43.

The division-leading Buffalo Bills, winners of six straight and the only undefeated team in professional football, play hosts Saturday night to the New York Jets (3-1-1) who are pressing the Patriots for third place in the Eastern Division.

In AFL games Sunday, San Diego, leader in the West (3-2-1) is at Houston (2-4-0) and Denver (1-5-0) plays at Oakland (0-5-1).

The National Football League will play a seven-game schedule Sunday. Baltimore (5-1) leading in the Western Conference, meets the second-place Detroit Lions (4-1-1). St. Louis (4-1-1) tied with Cleveland for first in the East, is at Dallas (1-4-1) and the Browns meet the New York Giants (1-4-1) at Cleveland.

Los Angeles (3-2-1) meets Green Bay (3-3) at Milwaukee in a must game to stay in the Western race. The Minnesota Vikings (3-3) play the 49ers at San Francisco. The Chicago Bears (2-4) are at Washington (1-5) and Philadelphia (3-3) is at Pittsburgh (3-3).

The Boston Patriots and the Kansas City Chiefs each will be hunting their first victory in three weeks. Last December, the Chiefs walloped the Patriots 33-3 and sent them into a playoff at the end of the regular season. The Patriots are undefeated in three games on the road; at home they are 1-1-1.
